A RECEIVER FOR THE LINE

President McDermott to Manage the City and Suburban.

Court Chooses a Washington Trac. tion Man Against Opposition of the Minority Stockholders-Syndicate Affairs Coming to a Head.

A further step toward the rehabilitation Company system was taken yesterday in the District Supreme Court in the appoint-ment of Alian C. McDermott receiver for the City and Suburban Rallway, on the application of the syndicate interests. The lity and Suburban is one of the constituent concerns of the syndicate and has been running behind in its business. The syndicate recently obtained several indgments against the company for sums ereiver in a judgment ereditors' bill. Mr. deDermott is a syndicate man. He was riginally President of the Washington raction and of the constituent concerns as well. Later he was appointed receiver for the Washington Traction, but is still holding his position as president of each of the minor companies. His new ap-pointment is a recognition by the court of the right of the syndicate to have its representative in charge of the affairs of the City and Suburban as against the laims of any conflicting interests.

The appointment of the receiver for the ity and Suburban is understood to mean that this line will be foreclosed and bought in by the syndicate. If this is done the minority stockholders will re-ceive nothing apparently, as there is not likely to be any other bidder than the syndicate and as it is not customary in uch cases for the purchaser to pay any

The Washington Traction affairs are coming rapidly to a head. Today is the last day in which the bonds of the comany may be deposited by holders with he bondholders' reorganization commitpany may be deposited by holders with the bondholders' reorganization committee. Next Tuesday is the last day set by the Virginia court in which action can be taken by any interest to prevent the foreclosure of the Washington Traction by its receiver and the carrying out of the reorganization plan. It is thought to be probable that the fate of the reorganization plan. It is thought to be probable that the fate of the reorganization plan, in its present shape, and the fate of the syndicate as the controlling interest in the Washington Street railways will be decided in the near future.

As far as can be learned the reorganization committee has made no changes in its plan as outlined in The Times recently. This plan contemplates the foreclosure of the Washington Traction and the purchase by the committee of the securities of the constituent concerns held by it. The committee, under the plan, will the minor concerns into it under the law passed by Congress a year or more ago. New securities will be issued and the old Washington Traction and Electric securities will go out of existence. It is understood that the plan also contemplates the purchase of the small minority stock holdings in the constituent companies, so that the new company will then own the nailway system outright except for the underlying bonds of the different constituent companies.

The statement may be made on excellent thalt the new company will then own the nailway system outright except for the underlying bonds of the different constituent companies.

The statement may be made on excellent authority, however, that there will be an important opposition to this plan developed either before or at the hearing of the case in the Virginia count at Norfolk next week. The stockholders of the Washington Traction and Electric Company, who own nearly $12,000,000 of stock, as a lien on the company after the bonds, do not acquitesee in the plan proposed by the bondholders. They state that the plan is not an equitable one to them and not in accordance with promises made to them by the bondholders committee. Attempt have been made by the stockholders to have some change made in the plan that would give them a larger interest in the proposed new concern, but these attempts have not met with success and it is now said that the stockholders will appeal to the Virginia court to prevent the fore-closure of the company in the manner proposed. One important and powerful interest at least is allied with the stockholders and the statement is made that they are hopeful of securing some concession from the court.

The City and Suburban case came up before Justices Bradley in Equity Court No. 2 yesterday, a rule on the company to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed being returnable yesterday. Attorney J. J. Darlington representing the company, offered no objection to the appointment, and, despite the protest of the minority stockholders, Justice Bradley employment receiver. There was some question at first as to the amount of the bond and the sum of $20,000 was at first suggested. The sum fixed on finally was $100,000. The new receiver did not qualify yesterday, but it was understood that he will probably do so this morning, and immediately take charge of the affairs of the company as an officer of the court.

The nominal applicants for the receiver were the United States Mortgage and affairs of the company as an officer of the court. The nominal applicants for the receiver were the United States Mortgage and Trust Company, which is the trustee of the bonds of the Washington Traction Company, and has been largely interested in the affairs of the syndicate from the beginning, and the United States Electric Light Company, the Anacostia and Potomar River Railway Company, all constituent concerns of the Washington Traction syndicate. These companies during the past year or more have loaned to the City and Suburban, to make up for its deficits in earnings, sums aggregating $22,000, and have received from it demand notes for the same. These motes were not paid and suits were brought on them several weeks ago, and judgment obtained by the companies. Proceedings were then instituted in equity on a judgment creditors bill, to declare the company insolvent and for the appointment of a receiver.

any insolvent and for the appointment of a receiver.

The opposition to the appointment of he receiver yesterday came from a numer of minority stockholders of the commany, who also had an application for a seeder, and who believed that the appointment should be made on their application. A bill was filed by them some weeks before the syndicate's bill was fled, and it was altered by them that he syndicate was attempting to wreck he company by diverting business from to other lines controlled by the syndicate.

These interests were represented yesterday in the proceedings by Messrs. Hamilton & Colbert and Leon Tobriner. It was asked by them that the appointment be deferred until next Tuesday in order that they might have time to present their side of the case and argue for the appointment of a receiver chosen by them instead of by the syndicate. The question was argued by both sides, Mr. McKenney for the ayadicate stating that as the petition of the minority interest had been filed for some weeks, and as nothing had been done by them in the matter, he saw no reason why there should be further delay. Justice Bradley acquiesced in this view of the matter, saying that as both parties allege that the company is insolvent, and both desire a receiver, and as the calm of a judgment creditor is a prior one to that of the stockholders, there could not be any injustice in making the appointment on the application of the syndicate. He stated that the minority interests will be able to take further action if they so desire when the receiver acts in the matter. Nothing could be learned yesterday as to the future plans of the binority interests. The bill filed by them originally represented the stock of only three stock holders, but since that time practically the entire minority stock, about 4,000 shares, has been joined to theirs in the effort to obtain some recognition from the syndicate or from the court. It is said that this interest would be willing to sell out to the syndicate if an offer were made, but it is understood that up to the present time there has been no auch offer.

Among the political notes in Sorrell's history of himself, he states that there was once here a head of a department under Republican rule who entirely ignored Republicans. On the night on which President Lincoln was assassinated, Sorell writes that he heard the department chief referred to utter and drink to the following toast; "Here's luck to the finger which pulled the trigger that killed the man who freed the nigger." A great number of witnesses were ex-mined relative to the mental condition of Sorrell. The physicians appointed by the court some time ago for this purpose testified that he is mentally unbalanced, and a fit subject for treatment in an asylum for the insane. Sorrell also testified in his own behalf, but his evidence only

At the conclusion of the hearing, however, Justice Barnard Informed counsel for Sorrell that if he had any further evidence to submit in relation to the mental condition of the subject it would be heard on Friday next.

James Boston, colored, was also committed to St. Elizabeth's Asylum for the Insane. He is suffering from religious mania, and informed the court that he had had a fight with the devil and conquered him. Boston also informed the court that he could dance and sing. #### NO ARGUMENT NEEDED.

That Salves, Lotions, Washes. Sprays and Douches Do Not Cure.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and in-halers cannot really cure Catarrh, be-cause this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish any-thing at all, simply give transient relief. The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the nurous membrane of the nose, throat, and traches tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the

A remedy to really cure catarrh must

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guniceol, Sanguinaria, and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one paintable, convenient, and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting loxenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

membrane of the throat and simally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain to cocaine, opiate, or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, funders, and powders for mosths at a time with tally slight relief, and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a focat box from my druggist and obtained and beautiful to me them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh. The second of the control of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment, and for convenience, safety, and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.
